Demo Leaders Set Policy for Income Tax

Democratic leaders are insisting on tax reform before any income tax is enacted into law, it was reported Saturday by Walter "Buck" Simmons of Venice, Democratic chairman, Madison county.

Simmons was one of 91 Democratic chairmen who attended a meeting of Democratic state officers and legislative leaders last week in Springfield.

Rep. Clyde L. Choate, Anna Democrat, called the meeting, which also was attended by Lt. Gov. Paul Simon, Treasurer Adlai Stevenson, Secretary of State Paul Powell, Democratic Senate Leader Thomas A. McGoon and Democratic House Leader John P. Touby.

The leaders agreed that should a minimum state income tax be passed, the rate for corporations should be twice that for individuals. Discussed were two per cent for individuals and four per cent for corporations.

The governor's three per cent tax, dropped from four per cent, was termed to be "a tremendous extra burden on the taxpayers of the state who are already paying the highest sales tax in the country."

The General Assembly is entering the final full week of the current session.

Snelson-Conrad Wedding At St. Elizabeth Church

Miss Regina Ann Conrad, and A. Raymond Snelson Jr., exchanged wedding vows in a double-ring ceremony Saturday afternoon at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

The service took place at 1 o'clock with the Rev. George Morelock and Rev. Paul Surbey officiating.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conrad, 98 Riviera drive, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Snelson Sr., 3229 Wayne avenue.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white angel mist taffeta with an A-line silhouette. Pearled and sequined re-embroidered Bordone lace motifs applied the bodice and skirt.

The same trim was repeated on the removable Watteau train accented with a bow and streamers. A short bouffant veil was of imported silk illusion and the bride carried white roses and blue carnations.

The attendants, Miss Marguerite Ward, maid of honor, Miss Pam Blason, bridesmaid, and Lee Ann Conrad, a sister of the bride, junior maid, were dressed in long gowns of blue tulle over taffeta. White Val lace trimmed the bodices, the puffed sleeves and edged the hemline of the skirts. Their flowers were single long stemmed white roses tied with white ribbon. Pale blue boys in their hair were attached to brief veils.

A program of wedding music was furnished by Miss Cindy Toby.

Ronald Valicoff served as best man, and Richard McNeill was groomsmen, David and Jim Snelson, brothers of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Conrad wore an aqua summer crepe dress, while the bridegroom's mother chose a pale green dress. Both wore corsages tinted to match the dresses.

A reception was held in the "300 Room" of the Tri Mor Bowl, and the couple left afterward for a honeymoon in the Ozarks. They will reside in Jefferson City, Mo.

The former Miss Conrad was graduated from Granite City high school in 1968 and attended SIU-SW where she was a member of the program Council and the hospital committee.

Mr. Snelson also was graduated from local schools and attended SIU. He is presently employed as a draftsman by Harlan Bartholomew & Associates in Jefferson City.

JUNE BRIDE. Mrs. Raymond Snelson Jr., who was married Saturday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church. She is the former Regina Conrad.

MRS. ARDELL W. BLIND. Her wedding was an event of Saturday, taking place at Glenview Chapel. The bride is the former Carolyn Minks.

The Rev. Andrew Tolcz officiated at the ceremony.

Mrs. Fred Macios, the bride's aunt, was organist, and Mrs. Leo Krinski was soloist. The songs were "Thou Art My Own," "Come Holy Ghost," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A gown of pure white Chantilly lace was worn by the bride. It was styled with a sabrina neckline and long wrist-pointed sleeves. The very bouffant skirt worn over layers of crinoline, featured wide ruffled tiers, the back falling into a sweep train.

A half moon headpiece of pearl flowers held secure the bride's tiered veil of illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a calla lily.

Mrs. David Bequette, matron of honor, and Mrs. Fred Schuman Jr., a cousin of the bride, Miss Lauren Prill, Miss Paula Neece, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Pamela Macios, a sister of the bride, bridesmaids, were dressed alike in gowns of pink jakata cloth with scoop necklines and short sleeves. Matching Venise lace trimmed the Empire waistlines and the sleeves.

Detachable trains fell from the waists in the back to the hemlines of the long A-line skirts. They were attached with soft bows and were trimmed with lace. Headpieces were matching bows and short veils, and all of the attendants carried arrangements of pink roses.

Little Denise LeBrun was flower girl. She was dressed like the other members of the wedding party.

Mr. Labanosky was attended by Ethan Allen, best man, and David Domino of Chicago, Thomas Krinski, Jerry Macios, cousins of the bride, David Macios, another cousin, Walter Macios, an uncle, and Frank May, an uncle of the bridegroom, groomsmen and ushers. The bride's mother chose a blue lace sheath dress. The bridegroom's mother was in an apricot colored sheath and matching coat. Both wore accessories to match their dresses.

The reception was held at the VFW hall, and the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in the Ozarks. They will make their home at 2909 Village lane, Apt. C, after June 28.

The bride was graduated from Granite City high school in 1968 and holds a secretarial position in St. Louis. Mr. Labanosky was graduated from the local high school and continued his education at the University of Illinois, receiving his degree this month. He is employed as a chemical engineer by the Monsanto Chemical Co.

Miss Minks, Ardell Blind Exchange Wedding Vows

In an evening ceremony Saturday at Glenview Chapel, Miss Carolyn Minks, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Minks, 2517 Center street, was married to Ardell Warren Blind, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Blind, 2513 Center street.

The Rev. M. W. Wilson heard the vows of the couple at 7 o'clock. Charles Adams, a cousin of the bride, was soloist, accompanied at the organ by Jerry Malone. The songs were "The Lord's Prayer," "Hawaiian Wedding Song" and "Each for the Other."

Arrangements of white flowers and greenery decorated the altar, lighted with burning candles, and the double-ring ceremony was performed before a flower-decked gate. White bows marked the family pews.

Miss Minks was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a gown of imported rayon organza. Daisy Venise lace motifs applied the Empire bodice and trimmed the long tapered sleeves. Tiny dots of the lace outlined the oval neckline and accented the high waistline and more of the lace appliques trimmed the A-line skirt and the detachable chapel train.

A floral Venise lace headpiece held in place the bouffant chapel length veil of imported illusion and the bride carried a cascade tulle bouquet of white carnations centered with a detachable cymbidium orchid corsage.

The attendants, Mrs. Kenneth Milton, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Blaine Blaine, Jr., matron of honor, and Mrs. Ronald Rummel, bridesmaid, wore identical gowns of mint green chiffon over taffeta. The Empire bodices were designed with oval necklines with Venise lace daisies edging the short sleeves and accenting the high waistlines. Sheer chiffon panels drifted from the necklines in the back and matching green daisy headpieces were worn with bouffant maline veils. Both carried white carnations tinted green and centered with yellow daisies.

Roxanne Aleksandrian and d. Lorenz Aleksandrian Jr., cousins of the bridegroom, served as flower girl and ring bearer. The former, dressed in white, carried the bridegroom, served as flower girl and ring bearer. The former, dressed in white, carried the bridegroom, served as flower girl and ring bearer.

Mr. Blind was attended by his brother, Keith Blind, best man and Lorenz Aleksandrian, a cousin, William Blakelock Jr. and Daniel Hannah, groomsmen and ushers. Candelights were Marilyn Reed and Connie Maxwell, cousins of the bride. Rob in Maxwell and Sherry Howland were in charge of the guest book at the reception held in the church hall.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Minks wore a melon colored chiffon dress over taffeta, while the bridegroom's mother selected a pink sheer coat and dress ensemble. Both had carnation corsages tipped to match their dresses.

Both young people are graduates of Granite City schools, and the bride is presently employed at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Mr. Blind is an employee of the Granite City Steel Co. After a brief trip they will reside in Granite City.

Heat, Humidity Prevail But Run Tops 70 Miles

High humidity was a major reason why Gus Schalkham, 18, Fontainebleau, fell short of running 100 miles in 24 hours Thursday and Friday.

He covered more than 70 miles, trotting around Granite City with the encouragement of frequent inquiries on his progress from well-wishers.

He started his journey at 1:30 p.m. Thursday. The temperature was 85 and he weighed 125 pounds.

Wrestling Coach Bill Schmidt ran the first two laps with him. During the second lap, I knew it would be rough because the humidity was so bad. It hurts when you have to breathe hot air.

During the 80 minutes, consuming 11.5 miles, the dehydrating threat of the sun showed dramatically; he lost five pounds. He drank some water and peach nectar.

Weight Continues to Drop
Next, he took the one of his five routes which led him along side railroad tracks. After 4.2 miles, he took a rest. In this short, hot jaunt, he lost three more pounds.

At 4:15 p.m., he started again. The temperature was 86. "I ran 5.6 miles and then rested again."

By now, stomach cramps came—the effect of having a balloon inside a container, bursting out. This stomach problem caused me to shorten my stride and I could not breathe deeply. The pains did not go away."

At 5:12 p.m., he had added 3.2 miles and weighed 115 pounds. "Along Benton at the entrance of the ice rink, a car pulled by our group of runners and suddenly stopped in front of us just to be cute. Because of his actions, I had to shorten my stride and both legs started cramping."

"Luckily, one leg stopped cramping but my left calf cramped just like it clinched fist for about three minutes."

He halted at 7:47 p.m. with accumulated mileage of 32.6. The temperature was a hot 83 but his weight had risen slightly to 117 pounds.

Peaches, Gelatin, Punch
At 10 p.m., after adding another 1.4 miles, Schalkham ate peaches, fruit gelatin, apricot nectar and punch for a weight gain to 121 pounds.

The temperature cooled to 76, his breathing problem eased slightly and between 11:30 p.m. and 2 a.m. he tackled on 19.1 miles for a 53.1 sum.

With a half-hour rest, Schalkham took his longest circuit along Highway Three past A. O. Smith Corp. After this five-mile trek, his triling leg muscles prompted him to rest for an hour.

As he was preparing to run again, his left thigh cramped and he fell to the ground. "After that, my left leg was a little weaker."

"I tried running and could not go more than 28 miles. I decided then that I wouldn't make a hundred miles and might just call it off. At about 8 a.m., I had decided to go home."

He had completed 69 miles. "I got home about 9:15 a.m. and ate some oatmeal. I started feeling better and decided to try and go at least 10 more miles. I started at 11 a.m. The humidity started getting a little bad."

"I got a small cramp in my left leg and ran 10.4 miles this last time, finishing at 1:02 p.m. I had gone 71.3 miles."

Damp ground forced him to take a short detour during the run around Wilson Park. This circuit will be remeasured; his total distance may have been 73 miles, some believe.

Crashes Mar Late Model, Modified Auto Racing Here

A car driven by William Laycock, 2442 Center street, flipped and rolled during a race at the Tri-City Speedway Friday night.

Laycock was hospitalized for bruises of the left foot and right hand, a fractured right hand and a foreign body in his right eye. He was released from the hospital in time to view the finish of the races.

Roy Hibbard salvaged a second-place finish behind Bill Utz in the crash-filled feature after leading almost all the way. In the double-O feature for semi-late model autos, Louie Jansen of Beloit won after flipping his car three times earlier in the evening.

Dennis Motley of East Alton flipped before the modified feature was fully under way, and Laycock's roll all the way down the front straightaway wall occurred on the seventh lap. On the tenth lap, Ed Maasie of Decatur overturned in the middle of the No. 2 corner.

Utz, Marshall, Mo., took the lead from Hibbard, Sedalia, Mo., on the 17th lap. Hibbard had the fastest time and modified heats were won by Massie, Jerry Camfield of Danville and Laycock.

Late-model heat races went to Art Lynch of Hillsboro, Fred Dixon of Litchfield and Ron Harrison of St. Louis.

GC Fast Pitch Nine Captures Twinbill

The GC Steel Credit Union fast pitch softball team took a twin bill from L. K. Duncan of Pacific, Mo., 1-0, 2-1, at Wilson Park Saturday. CU's season

Legionnaires' Bats Boom, Then Fall Silent

American Legion Post 113 swamped Mascoutah Post 292 by 15-4 Friday at Wilson Park but the next night Post 113 lost 3-2 on the road to East St. Louis Post 33.

James Becker hurled his second straight win Friday, allowing five hits and striking out eight.

Mascoutah opened the scoring but GC came back in the bottom of the first for a 2-4 lead and vanquished the visitors with eight runs in the last inning of the darkness-shortened game.

Three hits were sandwiched amid two errors, two walks and record now is 20-13.

CU's Bill Evans got five hits in seven trips in the two games. He was named last week to the Belleville League all-star team with a batting average of .420.

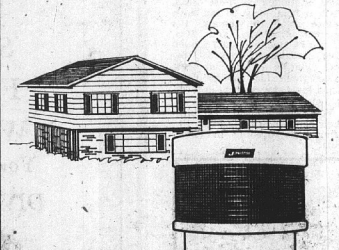

In the first tilt, Don Stalkut allowed five hits spread through the nine innings. He was supported defensively by Harold Tanksley and Mike Sues.

CU scored the only run in the last of the ninth. Norm Grote drew the first walk of the game, Evans and Sues hit to fill the bases and Grote scored on a passed ball.

Jerry Voloski then flipped a five-hitter with his team connecting for six hits off the top Pacific pitcher, Ralph Baker.

Pacific opened with a run, but CU came right back. Grote singled and Evans tried him home.

In the sixth, hits by Larry Dupu, Evans and Sues gave GC the win.

Mexican Honorary Commission stopped Abel's Auto 12-1, Polish Hall punished Sammy's Tavern 10-5, the Zips edged Falstaff 7-6 and Holiday Mobile Homes shaded Clark's Vikings 4-3 Saturday at Western Park in Northern division softball.

Mexican garnered early runs with superior bat work by Jess Ybarra and Hector Mendoza, each of whom hit a double and triple.

An eight-run sixth inning allowed Polish Hall to come from behind and win with a lesser number of hits than Sammys.

A do-or-die, bottom of the last frame two-run rally made the Zips the victors. John Bohenski hit a double and triple.

Holiday, with only four hits against the Vikings' 11, scored twice in the opening frame and twice again in the final frame.

In the third, CU's Steve Conway singled, Rodger Croakly reached first on an error, Larry Dillard walked, Tom Barnett cracked a two-RBI single and Steve Steff sacrificed for the third run of the frame.

When asked why she had been no action in the case of six persons arrested in a narcotics raid at a Granite City apartment last Feb. 15, he pointed to the search and seizure laws.

Griffith said he is advising police officers of one method to get around the laws—arrest suspects for something else and conduct a search incident to the arrest. If narcotics, weapons or other items turn up in the search, he said, prosecution then can be effected, he said.

Meanwhile, a state narcotics agent is to conduct a seminar for police departments in the Quad-Cities, county sheriff's offices and state troopers in the area in the near future, according to Detective Joseph Nemeth of Granite City who also is concerned with the narcotics problem.

Damage estimated at $2000 in the first of a series of underdetermined origin at the home of John Gravelle, 722 Washington avenue, Madison, about 6 p.m. Friday, Madison firemen said and alarm was turned in by a passerby who saw smoke coming from a basement window.

The blaze originated in the basement, according to a report by G. Miller, who said most of the damage was to the flooring joists and lower walls of the first floor level.

Nameoki Taxpayers Pay $149,880 First Week

Nameoki township taxpayers have paid $149,880 to township collectors since the first collections were begun Friday, June 13, it was reported Thursday.

Collections are being made at the home of John G. Miller, who said most of the damage was to the flooring joists and lower walls of the first floor level.

Griffith said he is advising police officers of one method to get around the laws—arrest suspects for something else and conduct a search incident to the arrest. If narcotics, weapons or other items turn up in the search, he said, prosecution then can be effected, he said.

Larger Budget Requested

GC Clean Air Board Seeks Funds to Step Up Program

Granite City's Air Pollution Control Board plans to purchase $3583 worth of equipment if its proposed budget is accepted by the city council.

Included are three high-volume samplers, a wind direction-velocity station and a hydrogen sulfide sampler, along with office equipment to step up the present part-time control program.

Henry S. Bieniecki, chairman, has presented the $17,182 budget to the council's Finance committee consisting of Aldermen Moerlein, Robertson and Boyd. Last year's budget totaled $6400.

He noted in a letter of transmittal that the local board's application for $22,900 federal funds is not expected to be approved by the state. "It is apparent," he said, "that the Illinois Board is not inclined to encourage a vigorous local control program in Granite City and an apparent lack of federal funds for Illinois makes the award of a grant to Granite City unlikely at this time."

The board had hoped with the federal funds to expand the local monitoring system, establish a basic laboratory and develop a stack monitoring program.

Bieniecki said the recent inclusion of Granite City in a federal air quality region "apparently will not significantly increase control efforts by the federal or state levels."

"The Federal Air Quality Act provisions rely on the states for enforcement, and the Illinois Air Pollution Control board has asked for a budget of more than $4,000,000 to conduct an adequate state program. The governor has seen fit to ask for an appropriation of only 12 1/2% of the board's request. Bieniecki pointed out to the committee that the lesser budget will not provide an adequate staff on the state level to provide police all of Illinois.

"If the state would establish a permanent local office in Granite City with the adequate staff and equipment equivalent to what would be required by Granite City to qualify for exemption status, then I believe our board would seriously consider recommending that air pollution control efforts be relinquished to the state. Assurance also would be required that the state would handle not only industrial problems, but all commercial, residential, automotive and other types of problems and complaints as well," the chairman added.

The state air pollution control act explicitly requires the encouragement of air pollution control efforts at the municipal level," he continued. "Barriers to a radical revision in the state statutes, policies and appropriations, it is incumbent on our community to look to its own resources for achieving the goals desired by the residents in the control of air pollution."

The proposed budget includes $3000 for payment of a part-time technical secretary for 10 months, $3000, a summer assistant, $700; and assistant technical secretary, $3200 and an office secretary two days a week, $1872.

The board also is seeking to hire an engineering consultant, with $1200 budgeted for salary. Miscellaneous expenses are estimated at $1625, including filters, travel and office and laboratory supplies.

DEDICATED BUT STILL WANTS LIVING WAGE

To the Editor:
This letter is in response to the "very concerned parent and taxpayer" June 16 who read the Forum June 9 "with utter disgust."

It seems incomprehensible to some people that teachers can be dedicated and still desire to earn a living wage.

I'm sure every taxpayer in this community is aware of the economic crisis in this country. I would be more than happy if I could send my creditors a note informing them that I was a dedicated teacher. But, alas, they all want money.

GRANITE CITY TEACHER

contract. The contract negotiations have gone on for five long months. The teachers want a contract for next year. They want the schools to open on time. The teachers want it all settled. They and the children of this district deserve no less.

Teachers are true most of the citizens of Granite City, will not work without a new contract for the next school year.

FACULTY MEMBER

BARGAINING PROCESS HAS A LONG HISTORY

To the Editor:
Collective bargaining is generally considered a recent innovation.

However, collective bargaining emerged in the 1880s and has expanded greatly since 1932. The key to successful collective bargaining is the desire of both parties to agree.

Local members of the American Federation of Teachers and the Granite City school board are negotiating a new contract. The teachers deserve support in their effort to negotiate a new contract that is (1) fair to the citizens of Granite City, (2) fair to themselves and (3), most importantly, fair to the continuation of high quality education of our children.

TEACHER AND MOTHER OF FOUR

SAYS STAFF SLIPPING BEHIND IN BENEFITS

To the Editor:
School District Nine, which has always taken pride in its schools and teachers, and the Granite City teachers do not have a contract for the next school year.

The teachers of Granite City are among the finest of the nation. The peace and tranquility in Granite City these past years has been because of the dedication and citizens' public support. Many school districts across the country have been in chaos when schools were scheduled to open; we have not.

The teachers here are well trained. They use their many abilities to educate the children of this district. Children are the hope and future of tomorrow.

Good teachers deserve good wages. They too have to live. Granite City teachers have slipped behind in salary and benefits, while the cost of living rises higher and higher.

The public has shown its good faith by passing the needed bond issues. They want good schools, good teachers and good education for the children. They deserve no less.

So we are developing a ministry of cheer and encouragement through personal correspondence.

Warm Welcome to the Newest Local Industry, Chemico Metals Corporation

Fast on the heels of accelerated airport and industrial park planning in this region, La Metallo Chimique of Belgium and its subsidiary, Chemico Metals Corporation, have announced plans to construct a manufacturing plant on a 40-acre Mitchell site fronting on Illinois Highway Three.

Production of copper, other non-ferrous metals and chemicals is contemplated, with initial operations beginning in the second quarter of 1970 and building up to full-scale production by the end of that year. Erection of the 141,000-square-foot manufacturing and office structure is to be started this summer.

We agree with the metal company's conclusion that it has found an "excellent location." The tract it is acquiring and other sites in the more than 9000 acres available to industry locally have everything to offer in terms of proximity to markets and all forms of transportation and access to a skilled labor supply.

A hearty salute is deserved not only by the newest member of the Quad-City industrial family but by the many who assisted in various ways, including Governor Ogilvie, the Illinois State Department of Business and Economic Development headed by Ray C. Dickerson, Madison county and Chouteau township officials, Chambers of Commerce, the Union Electric Co., Port District and other business and civic leaders.

We are confident that President Fernon of La Metallo Chimique and President Bockstetter of Chemico Metals will not only be "good citizens and good neighbors," as they pledged at the announcement luncheon, but that they also will find Quad-Cityans to be good citizens and neighbors toward them.

The data is too extensive for an immediate response, but it will be important that all the taxing agencies mentioned give it their early attention.

A positive approach toward its recommendations will be helpful, because it already seems clear that multi-county or county-level administration of refuse disposal will be the most efficient and economical—by a wide margin—over plans limited to single communities. As was stressed at the report meeting Thursday evening, cooperation is essential to achieve the greatest savings to be achieved.

The particular disposal method to be utilized will depend on how officials evaluate information contained in the report and other available data. Sanitary landfills will have to be at least a part of whatever program is developed, and may be the best overall answer in view of the high cost of incineration.

Composting and salvage operations and rail-hauling to mines have been found by the engineers to lack economic feasibility here at this time.

Although U. S. Public Health Service research may bring new techniques in the future, the already existing problem of solid waste cannot be ignored, especially when the continuing population growth is taken into account. Adding impetus is the shipment into this county of more trash than it generates, cutting in half the life of present and perhaps future landfill sites.

An added advantage of the proposal that has been developed is the involvement of planning agencies so that land filling and reclamation can be carried out more wisely, with an ultimate constructive use determined in advance of the start of each disposal site.

Revamp Traffic Controls at 27th-Madison

No local intersection or street is totally safe from auto mishaps, as the extensive injuries and damage of last week bear out. But the continuing high incidence of collisions at 27th street and Madison avenue, justifies a revision of the traffic controls there.

Madison avenue once had the undisputed right-of-way but now is on approximately equal footing with 27th street due to the installation and operation of light signals in recent years.

Unfortunately, due to the greater width and the four-lane dominance of Madison avenue, many motorists approach 27th with little thought of slowing and perhaps stopping. Attempted turns add to the hazards, as indicated by the descriptions in the large number of crash reports. The length of time the yellow light operates may be part of the problem, since there are many chain-reaction front-rear accidents.

Traffic arrests to discourage speeding have not provided a remedy. For less injury and property destruction, new stoplight sequences should be tried and the provision of separate turn lanes and left-turn-only lights should be considered.

Don't Miss Seeing the Hospital Construction

One of the most comprehensive and significant Quad-City construction projects of all time is under way at 21st and Iowa streets, where a $9 million wing is being erected and where it is planned to add a 10-story, eight-level floor at an added cost of $1½ million. There is not much room for "sidewalk superintendents," but we urge all to observe the fast-changing building site as often as possible.

25 YEARS AGO

A delegation of Venice residents living near the Union Electric power plant met with company and city officials to hear the company's proposal on elimination of flyash. Sediment allowed to be emitted from the plant is to be analyzed, and other steps are planned.

The Red Cross has spent $1879 for groceries, shelter, household goods, buildings and repairs and feed due to flood damage suffered by 14 families here.

50 YEARS AGO

JUNE 23, 1919
Fifteen local boys, all from the same company, returned home the same day from overseas after being honorably discharged. All were with the 32nd Engineers.

Those back are George and Al Malotki, Jack Price, Irvin Frohardt, Adolphus Hileman, William Collins, Tom Harris, Peter Kefalas, Walter Calligan, Scott Campbell, Charles E. Russell, Roland Brown, Melvin Miller, John Post and Charles E. Russell.

Colligan stopped off in Chicago to visit for a few days, but the others were eager to get to the Tri-Cities and were given a warm welcome by friends and relatives. Word had been received several days ago of their return to New York.

Construction has started on a new Western Fire Brick Co. office building at 16th street and Madison avenue.

By WILLIAM F. WINTER
"Senator Sergio Osmena Jr., economist and businessman, was nominated June 16 as the opposition Liberal Party's candidate in the presidential election in November. The son of a former president, he won a landslide first-ballot victory."

Last week's dispatch from Manila, capital of the Philippines, was read with more than the usual interest by 47 members of the International Conference of Weekly Newspaper Editors who had toured the Far East in May.

Politics there had captured their interest due to its turbulence and vigor. A decision by Senator Genaro Magaysay (brother of a deceased president) to switch from the ruling party had filled the headlines, a long with a federal budget debate, during the week they spent in Manila.

His bid for the nomination failed, and Osmena will oppose President Ferdinand Marcos, who is seeking a second four-year term as the Nacionalista Party standard-bearer. Such party switches are common, and there are many who see no major differences between the two parties. Although it is in the minority, the LP boasts that all but one of the six presidents originated from its ranks.

Any newspaperman takes a keen interest in governmental and political developments, and it was impossible to ignore the rapid approach of the party conventions and the vast space accorded them by the news media.

The political spotlight was made even brighter by the fact that the touring group was able to talk collectively and individually, in meetings and informally, with many of the editors, columnists, senators and governors.

An unusual degree of press freedom has been attained, and each of the many clipping papers was busy "telling it like it is."

Their outspokenness does not go unnoticed. President Marcos charged at the National Press Club griddiron during this year that the "media is distorted, often out of anger." Supreme Court Chief Justice Rostrollo Concepcion said regularly measures may be needed if papers fail to respond to valid criticism by improving their performance.

While there were frequent published references to "graft and corruption," they did not seem wholly unjustified. Mayor Estrella and nine other officials of his suburban municipality were convicted last month of receiving kickbacks from the purchase of highway turn mirrors and received prison sentences of up to eight years.

Thoughts dwelt briefly on Granite City when this committee was shown "The reliable sign in Manila is that a paved street must have a councilor in the vicinity."

petty pilferage has made "crime in the streets" a leading issue. And there are more serious law enforcement problems. Forty black-clad thugs in eight jeeps drove into the heart of Angeles City at 10:15 p.m. May 21 and escaped after a shooting rampage that left at least five dead and 21 others wounded, including two city police and four constabulary.

essence, the two political parties constitute only a single party. Third-party movements have been short-lived, partly because only the top two parties are permitted to have members on the boards that monitor election procedures and decide vote fraud charges.

The party switch referred to was seen at the time as potentially depriving Sen. Osmena of the nomination, although his new rival had the drawback of a record of extensive Senate absenteeism.

Magaysay said repeatedly that there were no strings attached to his becoming a Liberal; that no deal had been made for him to make the race, and the delegates apparently took this statement seriously. His official reason was disagreement with key administration policies.

Ernesto Gracinda of the Manila Chronicle summed it up by saying, "There seems little doubt that Osmena is still the strongest candidate the Liberals can put up against Pres. Marcos."

It is not his vote-getting ability that bothers the other Liberals, but that he is a strong leader. If he emerges to power, he will have to live up to his word in calling the session.

The Osmena-Marcos contest has raised the question of whether the Cebuano or Tagalog picks the most political punch, Tagalogs, who are inclined to support the incumbent over geographic loyalty, are more numerous.

mal, and Filipino voters quickly become disenchanted when they feel a leader is failing to live up to his promises to bring them better living conditions.

Pres. Marcos still is given relatively high marks, although some of his associates have not fared as well in their public image. He is favored because, while some serious problems have continued, he has taken effective steps toward solving others.

His glamorous wife, Imelda, works tirelessly to greet and befriend constituents, one of the province's provincial governors have sought to emulate her graciousness and striking appearance in their visits to public gatherings and festivals.

He has suffered some reverses notably a failure to obtain budget passage.

An indication of the way the political pot was boiling in late May was given in the Manila Times: "The Sixth Congress adjourned its fourth and last regular session at midnight last night only to be called back for a ninth special session by Pres. Marcos on June 2." He had the budget and 10 other bills in calling the session.

The Osmena-Marcos contest has raised the question of whether the Cebuano or Tagalog picks the most political punch, Tagalogs, who are inclined to support the incumbent over geographic loyalty, are more numerous.

Maximo V. Soliven, authoritative Manila Times political analyst, sees some danger in the United States.

On the occasion of the Philippine Labor Day in May, Sen. Osmena called attention to the unemployment, asserting that "jobs are scarce and millions of Filipinos are roaming the streets looking for work."

He blamed the administration for "engaging in premature infrastructure expenses (roads, utilities, etc.) which not only allow scandalous kickbacks but pay their very nature are capital-intensive and long-term in returns."

"I do not deny the need for infrastructure, but right now we should build from strength. We should maximize our returns from agriculture, mining and other things we have. From this base, we should work for the things we don't have—industrial parks and a productive economy."

Manila, noted that "the numbers racket, Mafia style, has plagued the towns of San Juan and Mandaluyong and is slowly engulfing other municipalities of the province." The corruption issue is, reinforced by allegations that, in

Buffy Sainte-Marie Opens River Festival Pop Series

Opening the "pop" season at the Mississippi River Festival Southwestern campus tonight will be Buffy Sainte-Marie, Cree Indian singer. The concert begins at 8:30 p.m. in the Festival tent, located in the northwest section of the 2600-acre campus.

A graduate of the University of Massachusetts where she received a degree in Oriental philosophy, Miss Sainte-Marie has five best-selling albums to her credit. While most of her audience comprises teenagers and the college crowd, "there are always a few from the Establishment who come to my dressing room to tell me they came to get mad and liked me instead," the singer says.

She has a repertoire ranging from ancient legends to contemporary western, from Mexican guitar to comic brogue, from Negro spirituals to modern folk-rock. Two years ago she played the guitar and primitive mouth bow for select highbrow groups.

Today, she entertains concert hall audiences and makes new devotees via television appearances.

Tomorrow evening at 8:30, the Modern Jazz Quartet will perform at the Festival, sponsored jointly by SIU-SW and the St. Louis Symphony. Representing a concern for understatement, the chamber jazz group includes leader John Lewis, pianist; Milt Jackson, vibraphone; Percy Heath, bass; and Connie Kay, drums.

"The most important thing we're doing," Lewis explained to a jazz critic, "the bulk of what we play, is improvisation. The rest is to give us a framework. And even those frames get moved or bent to fit what we're trying to project. All of what we do is relative, and can be different at different minutes in different sets on different nights."

Writing about Paul Butterfield's six-man blues band, scheduled for Thursday at the own material and has emphasized the back beat of his sound to satisfy the contemporary demands of the pop music audience. The group has been described as "Sound and soul—where folk, blues, rock and jazz unite."

All of the pop, rock and folk artists will be making their first appearances in this area on the Festival stage.

Concert tickets range in price from $1.50 outside the tent to box seats at $3.50. Other seats are priced at $2.50, $3.50 and $4.50.

Ticket coupon books, priced at $20, containing $25 worth of coupons, still are available at Quad-City banks. The coupons may be exchanged for seats at any performances.

Solve Problems At Local Level, Official Urges

State government in Illinois would be stronger if municipal governments could solve more of the problems of urban society at the local level, Michael J. Howlett, state auditor of Public Accounts, said Friday.

Addressing a Conference for Municipal Officials, sponsored by the Illinois Municipal League in the Holiday Inn East, in Springfield, Howlett said some of the work now being tackled by the Illinois General Assembly should be taken over by village boards and city councils.

"A tendency has been developing to look to Springfield, or even to Washington, for solutions to problems of water pollution, sanitation, congestion, inadequate transportation and many other details that could better be solved locally."

"If members of the General Assembly had fewer details of state government to worry about, they would have freedom and time to devote more attention to statewide government problems, which are enormous."

Howlett said municipal government has expanded steadily since world war II, but not as rapidly as state government.

"Illinois remains a low-tax, high income state. It has been rightly administered by governors of both parties for many years. The last Census Bureau report on public employment, of October 1968, showed only two states—New Jersey and Ohio—employed fewer state workers per unit of population than Illinois."

"The pressure is now tremendous to expand state government and provide more services. Evidently, the governor's original proposal, for a 45% increase in state government expenditure, will not be approved by the legislature, but there is still probability of new taxes and a growth in the government."

"When our new Constitutional Convention meets, an important issue for the delegates to consider will be the question of home rule for cities and villages."

"If municipalities are to do the job properly, a new constitution should give them powers of administration and control of their own local affairs, subject to General Assembly limitation or veto."

"The shift of population from rural areas to the cities and suburbs has created new problems which can best be handled close to home. To meet and solve them, local governments must be given the jurisdiction and the responsibility to raise the money to pay costs."

SOCIETY

MRS. JOHN A. HOLMES JR., of the recent brides. She is the former Judith Ann Purdes, of Madison.

Judith Purdes Bride Of John A. Holmes Jr.

St. Mary's Catholic Church in Madison was the scene of the wedding Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock of Miss Judith Ann Purdes, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Louis Purdes, 1610 Fourth street, Madison, and John A. Holmes Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes, who reside at 106 Henson, Villa Grove, Ill.

Two large urns of white carnations and white gladioli were at the altar and Father Sylvester Micok, O.F.M., officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted down the white-carpeted aisle and given in marriage. She chose a pure white organza gown fashioned with a yoke of three-dimensional Venise lace motifs which extended into the short sleeves. The lace was repeated on the wide peau de sole hemline and the back fell into a cage that swept to a chapel train.

A double layer of illusion and a crown held in place the waist-length veil. The bride carried a cascade arrangement of white Marguerite daisies.

Miss Elaine Kohlmeier presided at the organ and accompanied the soloist, Miss Rogers Davis, as she sang the nuptial Mass in Latin, "Pater Angelicus" and "Ave Maria."

Mrs. Carl Kittel, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Louise Vaughn, also a sister of the bride, Miss Suzanne Seasey, Miss Kathy Powers, Miss Pamela Proskin and Miss Jane Holmes, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids.

The attendants wore gowns of apricot color. They were styled with Empire bodices, scoop necklines and long puff sleeves edged with white lace. The lace was also repeated at the waists and on the full skirts.

Small headpieces of daisies were worn. Colonial bouquets of blue Marguerite daisies were carried.

Micelle Vaughn, Cheri Vaughn and Brigitte Kittel, all nieces of the bride, were flower girls. Their gowns were fashioned like those of the bridesmaids. They carried nosegays of daisies and wore headbands of the same flowers.

Mr. Holmes' attendants were his brother, Jeff Holmes, best man, and Bill Kirk, George Hales, Doug Matthews, Steve Liebenow and Brent Holmes, another brother.

Louis Vaughn and Carl Kittel, brother-in-law of the bride, served as ushers.

The former Miss Purdes, is a graduate of Madison high school and received her bachelor degree in recreation at the University of Illinois. The groom, a graduate of the Villa Grove schools, received his bachelor degree in physical education from the University of Illinois. His fraternity was Tau Kappa Epsilon. He is in the Naval Reserve, Pacific Force, Personnel, San Diego, Calif.

The young couple will reside in San Diego. Mrs. Purdes, mother of the bride, chose a sleeveless dress of aqua crepe with scoop neckline trimmed with lace.

Mrs. Holmes wore a sleeveless dress of apricot crepe with neckline.

Both wore corsages of daisies. A reception following the wedding took place at the Round Table, Collinsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will spend their honeymoon in Las Vegas, Nev.

SATURDAY BRIDE. Mrs. Thomas V. Moslander, the former Mary Ann Kezele, who was married at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

Miss Mary Ann Kezele and Thomas Moslander are Wed

Altar bouquets of white summer flowers and greenery adorned the sanctuary of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Madison for the wedding at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon of Miss Mary Ann Kezele, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Kezele, 806 Grand avenue, and Thomas Victor Moslander, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Prince, 2837 Ivy lane.

Rev. Engelbert Blenck, OFM, performed the ceremony, and a reception was held at Holy Trinity Hall in Madison.

The bride was attired in a gown of white organza. The sleeves were long and puffed, ending in cuffs with ribbon, lace and flower trim. Organza ruffles also trimmed the high neck of the Victorian gown, and Chantilly lace extended from the neck of the Empire bodice to the floor.

A veil, which was longer than the train, was edged on both sides and around the bottom with lace and held in place with a satin pillbox.

The only ornament worn was a locket containing a picture of the bride's grandmother on her wedding day. The bridal bouquet, a cascade, was made up of white gladioli and lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid corsage.

The honor maid, Miss Cecelia Krakowicki, and bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Hall, Miss Maria Kraus and Miss Donna Kraus, wore gowns of yellow dotted swiss with low rounded necklines and full puffed sleeves. Daisies on lace bands trimmed the high waists and the sleeves. All of the attendants held nosegays of carnations and daisies.

Rosaria Anselmo and Joseph Anselmo served as flower girl and ring bearer.

Attendants for Mr. Moslander were Thomas Kasproch, best man, and Michael Kezele, and Richard Moslander, brother of the bride and groom, and Gregory Wasyiak, groomsmen. Joseph Lemich, and Bill Medlin, uncles of the bride and groom, served as ushers.

The bride's mother chose a pink dress and a matching lace coat. Her flowers were a corsage of white carnations.

The former Miss Kezele, a freshman at SIU-SW, is a May 1969 graduate of St. Teresa's Academy in East St. Louis. She plans to major in nursing. Mr. Moslander was graduated from the Madison high school in 1967 and is now a junior at SIU, majoring in Physics. He is also employed in St. Louis.

The newlyweds will make their home in Village Lane, Apt. 3909.

Miss Travis, Gary Terrell Wed Friday in Wood River

The wedding of Miss Jolene Renae Travis and Gary Wayne Terrell, U. S. Navy, took place Friday evening at the Missionary Baptist Church in Wood River.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Travis, 2145 Edison avenue. Mr. Terrell's parents are Stan Terrell, 2403 Madison avenue, and Mrs. Naomi Terrell, 2905 Willow avenue.

Rev. J. R. Almond officiated at the 7:30 ceremony in a setting of white gladioli, greenery and candlelight. White bows marked the pews along the center aisle.

"The Brotherhood," a vocal guitar group from O'Fallon, Ill., provided a musical program. The selections were "All My Life," "Love One Another," "Today," "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes" and "My Beloved Is Mine."

A floor-length gown of white imported polyana and Peau d'Ange lace was worn by the bride. The fitted bodice featured a Victorian neckline and elbow sleeves. The A-line skirt, with a lace panel in the front, swept into a circular train attached at the waist with a bow. An imported silk illusion veil was elbow-length and held in place with a forward petal headpiece of lace and organza etched with pearls and crystals. The bride carried a formal bouquet of white roses.

The attendants were Miss Donna Fallis, maid of honor, and Mrs. Archie Lupardus, and Mrs. Thomas Finn, sisters of the bride, bridesmaids.

Miss Fallis was in a full length gown of white dotted swiss with green flocking fashioned with an Empire bodice, sleeves, and with a high standup ruffled collar and a matching headpiece.

The bridesmaids were similarly attired in gowns with orange and yellow flocking and headpieces in the same colors. They held bouquets of daisies tied with ribbons to match the gowns.

Traci and Lori Lockwood, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. They wore green dotted swiss dresses with white organza and lace sleeves and carried baskets of orange and yellow daisies. Stephen and David Finn, nephews of the bride, served as ring bearers.

Michael Hoy was best man, and Ted Seegers, Brad Roberts, and Richard Rose were groomsmen and ushers. Rocky and Rodney Lupardus, nephews of the bride, served as candlelighters.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Travis wore a yellow rayon and nylon voile dress and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of caramel Alencon lace with a modified Empire bodice and satin trim. Her accessories matched the dress. Both mothers wore corsages of yellow roses.

A reception was held in the church immediately after the ceremony. The newlyweds are honeymooning in Mt. Zion and Springfield, Ill. Mr. Terrell, who is on leave from the U. S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, will return there until his tour of duty is completed in September. His bride will remain here and will continue her studies at SIU-SW where she is majoring in elementary education. She was graduated from the Granite City high school in 1968. Mr. Terrell was graduated here in 1966.

The rehearsal dinner was given Thursday evening at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

READY TO BOARD A BUS for one of the activities of the two-week day camp, sponsored by the Granite City Association For Retarded, is a group of the 41 registered campers.

Two-Week Day Camp Ends with Train Ride

The Granite City Association For Retarded, a United Fund Agency, concluded Friday a two-week day camp, held in co-operation with the park district. The final activity was a train ride from Union Station in St. Louis to Edwardsville followed by a picnic at Rock Springs Park in Alton.

Forty-one campers were registered, with an average attendance of 38, participating in such daily programs as swimming, gymnastics, bowling, handicrafts and a field trip. The Association program also included roller skating, cooking, camping, and games with transportation provided.

Miss Margaret Roberts, physical education instructor at Maryville school, served as this year's coordinator. Others who assisted with the program were Mrs. Robert Shands, handicrafts; Mrs. Ivan Rellette and Mrs. Helen DeRuntz, food; Jeannine Hellrick, Jerry Sanders, Lisa Todd, Tim Wortham, Bob Wortham, Tim Killian, Patsy Shands, Dianna Tondre, Lester Pitman, Trudy Hotson, Ron Ingram, Marilyn Mang, Dave Cockrell and Barbara Deidner, volunteer counselors; and Kristine Hayes, assistant to the coordinator.

The first week's activities was highlighted with an overnight camp-out at the Baptist Recreation Center in Mitchell. For entertainment, the campers performed Indian dances, wearing costumes they had made during the week in handicraft groups.

A closing program was held on Thursday night at St. John United Church of Christ, when a brief program on the camp's activities was presented and slides taken during the two-week session were shown. Refreshments were served.

State's Atty. Pleads For New TB Trustees

Madison county State's Atty. R. W. Griffith has made an urgent recommendation to Harold Landolt, chairman of the county board of supervisors, to appoint three new trustees to the county tuberculosis sanatorium board to effect a transfer of sanatorium property and assets to the county.

He said that though the three current members have long served the county without pay, two of them are unwilling to adopt a resolution for the transfer. The other, George Schneider, has informed Griffith that he wishes to retire after serving 30 years on the board, though he favors the transfer. In a letter, Griffith told Landolt that further delay is costing the county about $400 a month and is now becoming critical in terms of continuing operation of the county nursing home.

He also said that the state mental health division wishes to lease the doctor's home on the sanatorium property to operate a zone office for a term of two years beginning July 1. He said this would relieve the county of some expense and would help the county's mental health program. He called for a meeting with new trustees as rapidly as possible.

Bill Would Require Voting Machines Here

A bill which would require voting machines in counties with over 50,000 population was approved at Springfield Thursday by the House of the General Assembly. Action is pending on a companion bill to permit a bond issue to pay for the machines.

The proposed bill would make it compulsory for electronic or mechanical voting machines in Madison county. The county board earlier this year appointed a committee to compile data on voting machines.

Two Driving Charges
Careless driving charges were filed Thursday at 2800 Madison avenue against Virgil L. Burt, 3119 Wayne avenue, and David M. Nodostrom, East Alton.

Tentative Budget Ok'd for Venice McKinley Bridge

A tentative budget for McKinley Bridge operations was approved Friday night by Venice city council members. The $333,000 budget, up $14,340 over the 1968-69 total, is subject to approval by the bonding firm legal railroads before the final adoption in September.

Mayor Lee pointed out that while $25 and $30 monthly increases are being given to toll collectors and the reserve fund for painting is being increased by $10,000, the budget shows a reduction in the budgeted amount for payment of Missouri property taxes. That figure is being reduced from $72,000 to $45,000. The mayor explained there is a reserve in the tax fund.

A breakdown of the proposed budget for Oct. 1, 1969, to Sept. 30, 1970, with the 1968-69 budget follows, with the new figure listed first:
Operating expenses—Chief toll collector, $6540 and $6180; 11 toll collectors, $67,860 and $64,650; fuel, light and water, $4500; same; telephone, $800; same; supplies and printing, $6000; same; clearing roadways, $500; same; miscellaneous operating costs, $2100; same. Total—$94,070 and $90,418.

Maintenance—Chief maintenance man, $7280 and $6900; two maintenance men, $12,000 and $10,260; bridge and buildings, $9000 and $8500; equipment, $800; same. Total—$29,080 and $26,760.
Painting reserve—$20,000 and $10,000.

Administration—Office salaries, $30,240 and $28,880; consulting engineer, $4800 a d $7200; highway consultant, $4500 and $3600; attorney and extra legal services, $4000 and $3600; annual audit, $1700; same; advertising, $11,400; same; fiscal, $14,000 a d $12,200; bridge office rental, $3000 and $2400; miscellaneous, $1585; same. Total—$108,925 a d $107,545.

In other business, the council approved a two-year maintenance agreement with the state highway department for snow removal and cleaning State Route 3 through the city. The state will pay the city $880 each year.

Two resolutions were approved for city employees and elected officials to continue qualification under the state Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund. The new stipulation is for 600 hours work each year.

The police report for May listed fines collected amounting to $607 and a total of 51 arrests.

Mayor Lee announced a special meeting will be held on Friday, June 27, for consideration of a new budget.

$150 Damage in Four Alarms for GC Firemen

Children playing with matches were listed as the cause of a fire resulting in $150 damage to the apartment of Marilyn Crinch, 2908 Kirkpatrick Homes about 2 p.m. Friday, it was reported by Granite City firemen.

In other alarms Friday, firemen went to 2239 Illinois avenue about 9 p.m. to extinguish a fire in the apartment of Charles Crews. The loss was estimated at $50.

No damage was reported at the Burger Check drive-in, 27th street and Madison avenue, where a fire in the apartment of a man was caused by a grease caught fire behind a stove about 5:30 p.m.

At 8:15 p.m., firemen washed down gasoline leaking from an auto on 19th street between Cleveland blvd. and Delmar avenue.

Optimists, Students Discuss 'The Gap'

A lively discussion among Optimist Club members and university students on the topics of war, religion, dress, social activities and the generation gap was featured during Thursday afternoon's Optimist Club meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Rev. James Craddock introduced Rev. Russell Wigfield, campus minister at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, and the two student guests, Carmen Deist and Mike Corley.

Fred Cunningham, president, presided at the business session, which was attended by 30 members.

He announced the Optimists national convention would be taking place over the weekend in Miami, Fla., at which time a successor would be elected for next year.
